

I personally believe that the FCC should leave the telemarketing law of Indiana alone. If I want to do business with a company I will call them. Otherwise I do not want bothered by unsolicited phone calls. Please protect Indiana citizens from these unsolicited calls. Thank You. Jeannie Vondersaar